Thank you for agreeing to conduct your seminar, Health and Illness Prevention in the Workplace on May 15. As I previously mentioned, our company saw a marked increase in the number of employees who took two or more sick days last year. We are hoping your seminar will provide our employees with facts about infectious diseases and tips on how to avoid catching the many “bugs” that make their way through offices in the winter time.

Enclosed please find your round-trip plane ticket from Orlando to Columbus. My assistant, Sarah Michaud, will meet you at the Columbus airport and take you to the Sheraton Columbus Hotel at Capitol Square on the evening of Monday, May 13. Sarah will meet you in the hotel lobby on Tuesday morning at 8:00 a.m. and provide you transportation to our corporate offices.

If you should have any materials you would like reproduced and available for the participants, please send them to Sarah by Monday, May 1. Additionally, let Sarah know if you will need any technology, LCD projector, microphone, etc., during your presentation. We have a knowledgeable audio/visual staff that can provide additional assistance if needed.

We look forward to your seminar. You were highly recommended as having a fun, informative, and enlightening presentation.

JOB 2 – MEMORANDUM

Key the following memo to All Employees from Julie Smith, Manager, Human Resources Department, using today's date with a subject of Health and Illness Prevention using the Style & Reference Manual formatting guidelines. Send a copy to Nancy Wells, CEO.

In response to the high absenteeism last year due to illness I would like to announce a unique opportunity for all employees of Professional Business Associates. Elizabeth Manning, R.N., will conduct a seminar on Health and Illness Prevention in the Workplace on May 15. Ms. Manning comes highly recommended as conducting a fun, educational and enlightening seminar on infectious diseases and their prevention.

We will be posting a schedule for the seminar on company bulletin boards. The seminar will last about two hours. We will do our best to schedule departments so there is little to no disruption of services to our customers.

JOB 3 – REPORT

Key the following report regarding Health and Illness Prevention from Harvey Rosen to Julie Smith in the Human Resources Department using the Style & Reference Manual. Use the current date.

Workplace health promotion is a coordinated set of programs, policies, benefits, and environmental supports designed to keep all employees healthy and safe. This comprehensive approach addresses multiple risk factors and health conditions at the same time and influences both employees and the overall organization or worksite.

High Medical Costs and Lost Productivity

Preventable chronic conditions are a major contributor to the costs of insurance premiums and employee medical claims. Employers also pay a high price in terms of lost productivity from employee illness.

1. Four of the costliest health conditions are chest pain, high blood pressure, diabetes, and heart attack.
2. Work-related stress is the leading workplace health problem.
3. Productivity losses from missed work cost employers an average of $1,685 per employee.

Unrealized Potential for Workplace Health Promotion

Workplace programs that promote and protect health and help prevent disease could potentially reach workers across the United States. Employers have a responsibility to provide a safe, hazard-free workplace for their employees. They also have an opportunity to promote individual health and create a healthy work environment.

JOB 4 – TABLE

Key the following table (with borders) single spaced using the Style & Reference Manual.
