Due to upgrades in our wellness center and due to a continued effort to improve and maintain a healthy staff, our wellness center will begin offering new courses and family memberships. Please share the following information with your family members. Family memberships can be purchased starting June 1, 2019; the Wellness Center will be open to the community in July 2019.

The Wellness Center's programming is focused on Prevention, Wellness & Recovery for all employees and their families. Whether you are interested in starting to work out for the first time, are recovering from a recent surgery, or are a veteran to the gym, we have something for everyone! The fitness programming at the Professional Business Associates Wellness Center offers a supportive fitness community that is inclusive, no matter what your fitness level is. Here is a list of our membership options:

Professional Business Associates employees have all-inclusive memberships which include use of all cardio and strength equipment, walking track, access to unlimited land-based group fitness classes, and a limit of ten uses per month in the pool. Employees also have access to personal training at no additional cost.

Spouse-only, Family, and Children-only memberships will all be offered at low cost rates. Watch your mail for more details about costs and course offerings. You are also invited to stop by the wellness center any day between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. to pick up membership information! We hope you will take advantage of all we have to offer!
