Case Study

Allie is a new employee in the Marketing Department. On Friday morning, after only a week on the job, she posts a picture on Facebook taken Thursday night of her and friends at a bar. Allie makes this post from her office computer while taking a break from typing a letter. She tagged the post as follows: “Enjoyed hanging out with my friends last night. My new job at PBA sucks...can’t wait to find another one!” Her co-worker, Bill, happened to see the post on Facebook Friday evening and texted Allie to say he thinks she will lose her job if management sees her post. He secretly takes a screenshot of the post and forwards it to their manager, Roger. Allie removes the post on Saturday morning after receiving Bill’s text. On Monday morning, Roger calls Allie into his office to visit with her, and she denies the post. Roger turns over the matter to you as well as the screenshot of Julie’s Facebook post.
