Reference/ Subject Line is Updated Human Resource Manual

The body of the letter:

The Human Resource Department has worked to update the current file. They have done a wonderful job with getting it current with what is going on in today's workforce. With that being said, it is important that we get final approval from the Board of Directors for the current manual. I have attached the most recent revision from the HR department.

One thing that the team is suggesting is that we include a letter of reassignment or transfer. With the continued growth of Digital Solutions, they feel it is important that this be part of the current manual since the company prefers to promote from within.

I would like to thank Julie Smith, Pat Hutson, Hannah Dundore, Maria Scott, Kay Rudolph, Jamie Knight, and Luca Pense for their dedication to this project. It was a major undertaking on their part. If you have any question feel free to contact Julie Smith (Julie.Smith@digitalsolutions.com) or myself (Nancy.Wells@digitalsolutions.com)
