State Preliminary Scenario

Jennie was recently hired to work as a receptionist for the front lobby. As receptionist, she is responsible for making copies for the people in her office. Her son, Jason, comes in and needs some copies for a school project. He brought his own paper and needs 300 copies for his class. If he doesn't bring the copies with him, he will fail the project. The company copier does not require a security key, nor do they keep track of copies made by departments.

- Who else may be affected by Jennie's decision and in what ways?
- What are the implications for Jennie's workplace based on her decision?
- How does Jennie's decision affect the development of her son's ethics?
- What are your next steps?
