The Woodhull Chamber of Commerce is developing a new initiative to encourage people to visit Woodhull's businesses. Woodhull is a city of 25,000 residents and serves as the Stanton County seat. The city's downtown features a number of restaurants, a bakery, a yoga studio, a bookstore, clothing boutiques and several stores selling vintage items. The city is also situated next to a river which connects to one of the largest lakes in the area. While many people come to Woodhull during the week for county matters, business traffic is light during the evenings and weekends. The pandemic has also adversely affected businesses. The Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring several programs to draw traffic to Woodhull and has hired you to design the promotional materials. While the materials are different, the Woodhull Chamber of Commerce wants to ensure there is a consistent look across all materials.
