PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE TEAM

(550)

NATIONAL 2022

FINAL

TOTAL POINTS (refer to rubric)

Teams will conduct the official BPA opening and closing ceremonies. Refer to the Workplace Skills Assessment Program Guidelines to obtain a copy of these ceremonies.

After the official opening ceremony, the chairman will ask for general consent to dispense with the reading of minutes, officer reports, and committee reports; the secretary will then read the first item of new business from the test/agenda. Once all the skills have been demonstrated, the team will conclude with the official closing ceremony. The “Followed designated order of business” section of the Specification Points on the judges’ scoring sheet relates to the test/agenda NOT the standard order of business as prescribed by Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised.

Up to five (5) minutes will be allowed each team for questions by the judges. These questions will be directed to the chairman for any team member to answer. The team members may caucus to determine the answer they wish to provide to the judges. The secretary is not required to participate in the caucus or assist with answering questions if he/she voluntarily decides to continue writing his/her secretary’s notes.

The items listed in this answer key are the order of new business for each subject listed. Each team will be limited to a maximum of 15 minutes for parliamentary demonstration to the judges. A warning card should be shown five (5) minutes before the maximum time and one (1) minute before the maximum time.

Each team member is allowed to use one 3” x 5” index card during the presentation. In addition, the secretary will use a blank sheet of paper to record the proceedings of the meeting in English, long hand for submission to the judges immediately after the presentation. The secretary will be permitted to use the contest agenda in the presentation room; this is to be submitted with the minutes. The parliamentary authority, Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised (12th Edition), or any other reference materials may not be used during the parliamentary demonstration. Please obtain the secretary’s handwritten notes and contest agenda before the contestants leave the room. These notes will be verified for content only.

The items (motions) under “Abilities to be Demonstrated” may be rearranged within subject areas; therefore, they cannot be transferred and conducted under a different subject area.

Use the Judge’s Scoring Rubric/Rating Sheets to evaluate and score each team. Please double-check and verify all scores!

Meaning of Symbols

* – See Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised (12th Edition) for specific rule. Consult index and tinted pages for further information and page references.

– A main motion when no other motion is pending.

I – Is in order when another has the floor.

S – Requires a second.

D – Is debatable.

A – Can be amended.

M – Requires a majority vote (i.e., more than half the votes cast).

M+ – Requires either of the following: (a) majority vote with notice; (b) two-thirds; or (c) majority of the entire membership.

2/3 – Requires a 2/3 vote (i.e., at least twice as many in the affirmative as in the negative); must be taken by a rising vote.

C – Usually no vote is taken. The chair responds.

C+ – No vote is taken. The chair decides.

R – Can be reconsidered.

QUESTIONS BY THE JUDGES

Up to five (5) minutes will be allowed each team for questions by the judges. The following three questions will be directed to the chairman for any team member to answer. The team members may caucus. The secretary is not required to participate in the caucus or assist with answering questions if he/she voluntarily decides to continue writing his/her secretary's notes. Judges are not allowed to make up additional questions.

Questions will have reference to the abilities demonstrated during the event.

EACH JUDGE IS TO ASK THE SAME QUESTION(S) OF EACH TEAM. EACH TEAM MUST BE ASKED THE SAME NUMBER OF QUESTIONS.

1. When, if ever, may the vote on an Objection to the Consideration of a Question be reconsidered?

ANSWER: A vote sustaining the objection, a negative vote, can be reconsidered. An affirmative vote cannot be reconsidered. (RONR (12th ed.) 26:2(8))

2. A continuing breach provides an exception to the general rule that a Point of Order must be raised timely. Please provide two examples of a continuing breach.

ANSWER: List any two of the following: (RONR (12th ed.) 23:6(a-e))

- A main motion has been adopted that conflicts with the bylaws (or constitution)
- A main motion has been adopted that conflicts with a previously adopted main motion still in effect
- Any action taken in violation of applicable procedural rules from state, federal, or local law
- Any action taken in violation of a fundamental principle of parliamentary law
- Any action taken in violation of a rule protecting absentees, a rule in the bylaws protecting the secrecy of the members' votes (as on a ballot vote), or a rule protecting a basic right of an individual member

3. If a motion to Lay on the Table is rejected, when, if ever, may the motion be renewed?

ANSWER: A motion to Lay on the Table may be renewed when either (a) there has been sufficient progress in debate sufficient to make it a new question, or (b) when something urgent arises that was not known to the assembly when it first decided the question (i.e., when the assembly first rejected the motion). (RONR (12th ed.) 17:3(8))
