DESCRIPTION:

Assess interpretation of personnel policies and knowledge of human resource management.

STATE FINAL KEY SCENARIO:

The company's receptionist, Brooke, has approached you with a problem, but she doesn't want you to do anything. She just wants it to be on record that she told someone. Brooke is upset because she is being aggressively harassed by the local delivery driver who visits the office daily. She simply does her job by receiving and signing the deliveries, but the driver keeps asking her out, and openly stalking her social media accounts. Brooke respectfully declines and verbally tells the driver that she is not interested. However, the driver is persistent and has escalated to the point of bringing her expensive gifts and flowers, which Brooke politely declines. Several of her coworkers and immediate supervisor have noticed these daily exchanges and Brooke has become the "hot topic" of conversation in the break room, company emails, and various social media accounts.

As the Human Resources Manager, how would you handle this situation? In your solution, include recommendations using your Human Resources Manual as a guide.
