Dear Employee

Note to Graders:

Signature Block wording and arrangement may vary.

A “Draft” watermark is to be included.

Are leaders born or are they created? Of course, many have those inborn leadership skills, but everyone can benefit from learning new skills. Digital Solutions is excited to announce the formation of the new leadership institute: The Debbie Paul Memorial Leadership Academy. This academy is being established in memory of one of our outstanding leaders. She was a forerunner in education and business and touched not only the lives of those here at Digital Solutions, but she also touched many in the community and in the business world!

To complete an application for a spot for yourself or for one of your employees, please complete the attached form. There is a limit of 25 participants in each session. Sessions will be on the third Thursday of each month, beginning in April 2023 and will run from 9 am – 4 pm. Complete instructions will be sent once all participants have been selected. If you have any questions, please email Richard Olberding at rolberding@ds.org.

Digital Solutions is excited to offer this new leadership training to our employees. “A leader is one who knows the way, goes the way, and shows the way!” ~John C. Maxwell

Sincerely

Julie Smith, Human Resource Manager

The Importance of Leadership

Leadership skills can help you in all aspects of your career, from applying for jobs to seeking career advancement. It is one of many soft skills that employers value. Leadership skills often incorporate several different personality traits and communication abilities that are useful for anyone to learn and practice over time.

Knowing the definitions of leadership skills and citing relevant examples can be especially helpful when you're writing your resume. If you're applying for jobs that require you to take initiative and be a leader—whether as a manager or among your peers—you should list leadership skills on your resume.

1. What are leadership skills?
2. Why are leadership skills important?
3. Top 6 leadership skills
4. How to improve your leadership skills
5. How to highlight leadership skills when applying for jobs

What are Leadership Skills?

Leadership skills are skills you use when organizing other people to reach a shared goal. Whether you're in a management position or leading a project, leadership skills require you to motivate others to complete a series of tasks often according to a schedule. Leadership is not just one skill but rather a combination of several different skills working together.

Some examples of skills that make a strong leader include:

- | | |
|-------------------------------|-----------------|
| ✓ Ability to teach and mentor | ✓ Flexibility |
| ✓ Active listening | ✓ Patience |
| ✓ Creativity | ✓ Positivity |
| ✓ Dependability | ✓ Reliability |
| ✓ Effective feedback | ✓ Risk-taking |
| ✓ Empathy | ✓ Team building |

Why are Leadership Skills Important?

Effective leaders are essential to any organization. They can help build strong teams within a business and ensure projects, initiatives or other work functions are performed successfully.

Because the skills of a leader involve multiple interpersonal and communication skills, anyone can exercise and hone their leadership abilities.

Most people have seen the results of both effective and ineffective leaders on the job. Good leaders increase employee engagement, support a positive environment and help remove obstacles for their team. Good leadership is also contagious, inspiring colleagues to apply positive leadership traits in their own work.

Top 6 Leadership Skills

Almost any positive soft skill might be considered a leadership skill. For example, active listening helps leaders bring projects to completion by hearing the ideas and concerns of the team. Empathy, for example, helps leaders understand how their team feels about their workload, environment and workplace relationships. Here is a list of must-have leadership skills that may prove valuable to anyone applying for work or looking to advance in a career.

1. Decisiveness
2. Integrity
3. Relationship building (or team building)
4. Problem-solving
5. Dependability
6. Ability to teach and mentor
