STATE PRELIMINARY SCENARIO:

Cody, a recently hired employee in the Marketing Department of Digital Solutions, is about to sign a new client to a $100,000 contract. As he is reviewing the contract with his boss, she quietly closes the door to her office and discloses that sales this quarter are far below projections. After telling Cody that she is under a lot of pressure to increase sales, with her job and possibly others on the line, she asks him to include the revenue from his new contract in the sales figures for the quarter than ends tomorrow. Cody is confident that the contract is a sure thing; however, the new client is traveling abroad and cannot possibly sign by tomorrow.

- What are Cody's next steps?
- What, if any, company ethics policies were violated in this scenario?
- What impact will Cody's decision(s) have on his career advancement with Digital Solutions?
- How will Digital Solutions' reputation and future relationship with the new client be impacted based on his decision?
