Release November 20, (current year)

WHIMSY WARDROBE BLACK FRIDAY BREAKUP

Whimsy Wardrobe, the online retailer known for its quirky clothing, gifts and décor is breaking up with Black Friday. This year, the brand is inviting its shoppers and employees to spend the holiday as it should be spent, with family, friends and leftover pie.

Whimsy Wardrobe is shutting down its site on Black Friday and giving its employees a day off, so its workers and shoppers can focus on things that make them feel good - namely donating to charity.

"It's easy to get caught up in the hustle and bustle of the holidays and we wanted to do something different and remind our community that this time of year is about friends, family and helping others in need," explained Nicole Haase, Whimsy Wardrobe's vice president and general merchandising manager.

Instead of posts from Whimsy Wardrobe's social media about all the deals and steals - this week, the brand wants to see what gives YOU the feels.
