Dear Mr. Warenski

DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY (OR OTHER APPROPRIATE SUBJECT LINE)

As we discussed at our recent meeting, I understand that you are interested in signing a Durable Power of Attorney that will allow your daughter, Kaia, to sign documents relating to your real estate transactions if you are unable to do so, whether due to an extended out-of-town vacation or an illness or incapacity. I am enclosing a copy of the document I prepared for your review.

As I told you, once you sign such a document, although you will still be able to sign documents on your own behalf, Kaia will also be able to manage any real estate sales or purchases without discussing such matters with you first, and regardless of whether you are actually out of town or unable to sign on your own behalf. You must be certain that you do want to grant this authority to Kaia before signing this Durable Power of Attorney.

If you want to proceed by executing this document, please contact my office and we will schedule a time for you to come in to sign it before two witnesses, one of whom is a notary.

Please contact me with any questions or concerns.

Sincerely

Keisha Johnson
