Description

Develop a plan, following the guidelines in the Style & Reference Manual to implement your marketing strategy and create a roadmap for future growth and business development.

The completed plan should include, but is not limited to, the following:

- | | | |
|--|---|---------------|
| • Title page and Table of Contents | • Marketing mix | • Works Cited |
| • Synopsis | • Economic, social, legal, and technological trends | |
| • Company goals | • Human resource requirements | |
| • Description of customers and their needs | • Marketing timeline | |
| • Description of pricing strategy | • Methods of measuring success | |
| • Competition | | |
- Submitted separately during presentation ONLY:
- Supporting documentation (research, charts, brochures, etc.)

Eligibility

Any secondary student member may enter this event. A team will consist of 2-4 members. Members participating in the national level competition must be registered for the event prior to the submission deadline for technical judging. Teams must participate in both parts of the competition to be ranked.

Topic

Background - D'vine by Design is a local "fictitious" event planning company that specializes in organizing and managing corporate events, conferences, trade shows, weddings, and social gatherings. The company was founded in 2015 by Sarah Vine, an experienced event planner with a passion for creating unique and memorable experiences. Initially, the company started as a small venture, but through consistent dedication and hard work, it quickly gained recognition for its outstanding event management services. With a dedicated team of event professionals, strong client base, and positive reputation, D'vine by Design is considering expanding its operations to tap into new markets and increase its profitability.

Task – D'vine by Design has hired your marketing team to identify expansion opportunities into a domestic U.S. city of your choice within one to three years, with a vision for future international expansion in five to seven years. Be prepared to defend your recommendations from a marketing standpoint.

Use the Marketing Plan format in the Style & Reference Manual and the rubric as your guide.

Teams who do not submit an entry that follows this topic and/or violate state and federal copyright and fair use guidelines will be disqualified.

Any marketing plan submitted beyond the maximum number of pages will be disqualified.

Team must supply

Teams may use a presentation device, projection equipment, product displays and props (product samples and promotional items), prepared posters, flip charts, easels, or graphs in the presentation

Carry-in and set-up of equipment must be done solely by the teams and take place within the time allotted. Team must bring all supporting devices (e.g., extension cords, power supply, etc.)

No Internet access will be provided on-site at NLC; however, teams may provide their own access to be used only for their presentation to the judges

Business Professionals of America assumes no responsibility for hardware/software provided by the team. No equipment, supplies, or materials other than those specified for an event will be allowed in the testing area. No previous Business Professionals of America tests and/or sample tests or facsimiles thereof (handwritten, photocopied, or keyed) may be taken into the testing area. Violation of this rule will result in disqualification.
