Job 1: Letter

Key the following as a Business Letter using the letter formatting in the Style and Reference Manual. Use 758 W. Hardtner St, Kansas City, MO 64030 for the recipient Patrick Johnson, and use the current date and current year. Julie Smith, the Marketing Director, is sending this letter.

With the right revenue cycle management software, you can simplify the billing process at your clinic and lower delinquent accounts by over 20%. Primary Patient Care is a health care RCM provider that provides comprehensive software solutions for billing and patient account management for hospitals and private practices. We have over 10 years of experience coordinating payments and maintaining databases for health care professionals, resulting in a user-friendly software interface that optimizes the payment process.

Health care providers that use Primary Patient Care report better customer service ratings, fewer later payments, and increased insurance claim acceptance rates. For a limited time, we are offering our entire software suite with platinum access for only $200 a year. Enjoy access to features like a patient portal that integrates with your practice's website, automatic appeals and self-service bill pay.

We are offering this discounted bundle until December 15, 2025, so reach out to services@email.com today to schedule a free demo. If you act now, you will gain complimentary access to 24/7 customer service for both patients and providers.

Job 2: Memo

Key the following as a memo to all staff at Johnson Solutions from Julie Smith, Human Resource Manager about the new inventory system. Send a copy to Harold Peterson, Chief Executive Officer.

As we have announced previously, our company will begin using a new inventory system starting (use current date). This new system will make it easier to communicate with vendors and reduce delays or errors with a shipment. Since we have early access to training materials, we want to train all staff in the purchasing and production departments on how this system works.

The new inventory system is exciting, and we believe it will help us expedite orders and improve efficiency.

This is a mandatory training session that you will complete before Aug. 18, 2025. We will offer several dates for employees to complete this session via email, so register for the date and time that suits your schedule.

Job 3: News Release

Key the following as a News Release using the news release formatting in the Style and Reference Manual from Nancy Wells to be released April 20-- (use current year)
