STATE FINAL SCENARIO:

Digital Solutions is a medium-sized technology firm that develops and sells software, hardware, and services. Tom, the Manager of the Information Technology Department, consistently assigns tasks and pay scales based on gender stereotypes, perpetuating a culture of gender bias within the team. Despite being educated on the company's policy against gender discrimination and receiving feedback from Human Resources about the need to promote gender equality, Tom continues to assign administrative duties and lower pay primarily to female employees and technical tasks and higher pay to male employees. This unequal distribution of tasks and associated pay not only reinforces harmful stereotypes but also undermines professional growth and development opportunities for all team members.

As the Human Resources Manager, how would you handle this situation? In your solution, include recommendations using your Human Resources Manual as a guide.
